

Sprague Basketball Parental Roles

Sprague Basketball Program Parent Non-Negotiables (DO NOT DO THESE)

NOTE: All of these have happened in the past decade of the boys basketball program at Sprague High

1. Yell obscenities from the stands in the direction of referees, coaches, players, admin, etc.
2. Create social media posts regarding your displeasure with coaching decisions.
3. Bad mouth coaches in the stands or directly after the games.
4. Come onto the floor during a game to yell at: the scorekeeper, referee, coach, players, etc.
5. Come behind the bench to yell instructions at your child, another player, or coaching strategy.
6. Come onto the floor to spit on a referee, coach, or opposing player.
7. Come into the locker room after the game (or at anytime) in order to yell at coaching staff/players

Player's Role	Parent's Role (DO THESE)	Coach's Role
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Have Fun Playing Basketball 2. Give 100% effort and focus in All Practices and Games 3. Have integrity in victory and defeat 4. Abide by all program expectations 5. Act with integrity and get the job done in the classroom 6. Act with integrity in the community and participate in community service efforts 7. Put the team goals before your own individual ego and goals 8. Accept decisions made by authority (Parents, Coaches, Referees) 9. Be accountable for your own actions and live with the consequences 10. Accept coaching and correction with a good spirit (DO NOT POUT) 11. Encourage teammates 12. Display good body language through adverse situations 13. Embrace Life Lessons 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Be a role model or example of how to behave for your son 2. Relieve pressure to your son, do not increase pressure on your son 3. Understand coaches make decisions in best interest of the team and program above individual needs, egos, and goals 4. Be an encourager to all student-athletes (In victory or defeat) 5. Understand basketball season's have a lot of "highs and lows" 6. Attend and be loud/encouraging during games 7. Support fundraising efforts that are meant to better the program 8. Help make a positive experience for all student-athletes 9. Keep team goals in mind while viewing your son's individual goals 10. Release child to coach/the team 11. Accept judgement of coaches, officials, and school administration 12. Accept mistakes made with 100% effort 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Teach student-athletes to act with integrity on and off the court and confront actions of student-athletes when not displayed 2. Hold student-athletes accountable who do not give 100% effort and act with integrity in all classes, team activities, or in the community 3. Put team and program goals above individual goals/egos 4. Accept officiating 5. Reward behaviors on and off the court - not just outcomes 6. Accept mistakes made with 100% effort 7. Lead by example 8. Understand that a basketball season is long and has a lot of "highs and lows" - Keep the team together through adversity 9. Construct a vertically integrated system of play that give us the best chance to maximize our basketball potential